

Color Trends 2022

Of Mist and Mystique

There’s an undeniable commonality among the hues decreed 2022’s top colors by popular paint brands. It’s apparent in even a quick glance.

These 2022 paint colors congregate in a relatively concise spectrum of greens and grays. Each tone evokes both natural and ephemeral inspiration—a fresh, foggy blend of flora and firmament.

One can’t help but sense a shared story in this company of subdued hues. From color to color, the tale is of people who seek a peaceful, almost languid, connection to nature. Inside—on the walls of our homes and workplaces, we welcome the mist in our midst.

At the start of the year, a new trend is in the air.
